in assisting families, especially single women with children in finding gainful employment, transportation, and day-care facilities. We currently do not have any families with zero-income on the voucher program. Landlords have been educated in providing decent, safe and affordable housing for participants on the program. We have acquired new landlords willing to participant that are not in poverty targeted areas. Many landlords have several units leased on the program and only want voucher participants in their units. BHDC continues to provide guidance and resources to participants that show interest in owning their own home. Two participants were able to purchase their own home in the past 2 years and end their participation in the voucher program. Their vouchers were given to 2 families on the Waiting List.
